BUSY BUSINESS MEN

Science Helps Them Out After Recklessly Abusing the Stomach.

The most reckless man in regard to health is the busy business man. At noon he rushes out for a bite to eat. He bolts his food without proper mastication, and heaps on his stomach an extra burden greater than it is able to carry without breaking down.

His overworked stomach is crying for help. It appeals to him for relief in various ways; expulsion of sour gas, waterbrash, sour taste in mouth, heaviness after eating, shortness of breath, bad breath, etc.

One Mi-o-na tablet, taken with or after each meal will help any sufferer from dyspepsia wonderfully. It aids the stomach in the work of digestion which it must perform.

Mi-o-na tablets are sold by The Lee & Gage Co. at 50 cents a large box, with a rigid guarantee to cure dyspepsia and all stomach troubles, or money back. They make eating a pleasure.

Mi-o-na cleanses and purifies the stomach and bowels and puts vigor and strength into the overworked tissues. It is the surest stomach tonic in the world.

Sold by leading druggists everywhere.

HYOMEI

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler $1. Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

Woman's Board of Foreign Missions

Eastern Connecticut Branch Held Thirty-Fourth Annual Meeting at New London—Norwich Women Elected

With messages of the encouraging growth both numerically and in effectiveness of missionary labors in foreign lands, the thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Eastern Connecticut branch of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions was held Thursday in the Congregational church, New London. There were two sessions, the morning session opening at 10:15 and the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The showers of the early morning and the general stormy tendency of the day had the effect of lessening the attendance, although even in the face of the inclement weather there were about 70 delegates in attendance.

The Woman's Foreign Mission board is strictly a Congregational society and gathered for the annual meeting were women of that denomination from Norwich, New London, Groton, Willimantic and in all sections of New London and Windham counties.

Three addresses touching on missionary work, all delivered at the afternoon session, were the features of the day's programme. Mrs. C. M. Lamson of Boston, a missionary worker of note, spoke on Giving and the Motives for It. The great growth in benevolences was commented upon, philanthropic giving was commended, and much was said for giving more money and more workers in the field of the land of the sultan. The speaker was Mrs. Lyndon S. Crawford, a returned missionary.

Rev. D. Brewer Eddy of Boston, a secretary of the American Board's commissioners of foreign missions, delivered an address teeming with interesting information on missionary work in foreign lands and with helpful suggestions for giving even more glorious results than now.

At 12:45 a basket collation was served in the chapel of the church by the women of the church. To designate the speakers blue badges, and the officers of the Woman's Board of Missions and other branches, lavender badges; officers of the Eastern Connecticut branch, white badges, and unbranded, pink badges. Young women of the Second church acted as ushers.

At the afternoon session the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year, Norwich faring well in the election:

Election of Officers.
President—Miss Abby G. Willard, Colchester.
Vice Presidents—Miss Emily S. Gilman, Norwich; Mrs. J. M. Huntington, Norwich; Mrs. S. H. Howe, Norwich; Mrs. Douglas L. Randall, Groton; Miss Emily C. Smith, New London; Mrs. J. H. Larrabee, Norwich; Miss Marion D. Chollar, Danielson; Miss Kate Huntley, New London; Mrs. Frederick W. Lester, Norwich.
Corresponding Secretary—Miss Nancy E. Lucas, Norwich.
Recording Secretary—Miss Emeline C. Smith, New London.

Before the singing of the last song prizes were awarded for good conduct and usefulness both in and out of school to Annie Haack, Freda Haack, Gladys Thorne, Gertrude Thorne, Viola Derosa.

The Commstock prizes for advancement in work were awarded to Clifford Ferris, Annie Haack, Anna Bergman, and Willis Thorpe. The Vacation Song by the school closed the programme. Owing to the rain, refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, lemonade and fruit were served in the school room instead of outdoors as at first arranged.

The school room was decorated with flags, cut flowers and ferns. Parents and friends were present.

THIRD COMPANY VOTES TO GO IN TABLEAU

Four From Company Will Try for the State Rifle Team—Members to Assist in Firing Salute.

On Thursday evening there was a special drill of the Third company at the armory under command of First Lieutenant Coleman. In the absence of Captain Hagberg, who was attending a committee meeting.

At the meeting of the company which followed it was voted to continue the weekly drills until July, with the $1 fine for non-attendance. An invitation was received from ex-Sergeant Leach of the company, inviting a detail from the company to assist in firing the salute of 21 guns from Geer's hill on Monday morning, July 5. There was a dozen who volunteered and they will be ready at five that morning.

The company voted to accept the invitation of the committee on tableaux to participate in them, and they will give a short drill. There are four members of the company who will represent the coast artillery corps team at the rifle range at East Haven on the 25th and 26th, and as the result of that shoot the state rifle team will be picked. The four are Captain Hagberg, Lieutenant Coleman, Sergeant Denison and Private Mason. They will go to the Danielson range the last of the week for practice, where all candidates are expected to report. Each organization of the state militia will send a team to the East Haven range.

The company is much pleased at the assignment to Fort Mansfield. There they will have the instructions of Lieutenant Pratt, who was here during the winter, he being the officer in charge there. They figure it will be better for their friends to come to see them and that there will be much more life owing to the nearness of Watch Hill. The frame containing the pictures of the officers and non-commissioned officers was hung in the armory room on Thursday evening, making a decided addition to the room.

Willimantic Camp Ground.

Cottagers to Have Mail Service During July and August—Campers Arriving Daily—Improvements About the Grounds.

The most pleasing news that greets the early campers at Willimantic Camp Ground, is that they are to have letter carrier service during July and August. Seasons before Uncle Sam has given the Camp Ground carrier service for twenty days. This was not time enough and this year they have with the approval of the campers.

Road improvements continue. Mayor Lippitt has had a cinder road and one is being laid in front of the H. B. Smith cottages on Foster avenue. The flagstaff which is to duty on the opening was taken to its place recently. The pole was cut by Superintendent Jeffers on the grounds and measured fifty feet. Money for a flag has been raised by Miss M. L. Brooker of Springfield, Mass.

Cottages open daily. The demand has about reached the limit of cottages tent.

The inner man of the campers is well provided for, being under the direct supervision of W. B. Watrous, assisted by Allen Sterry. Mayor and Mrs. Costello Lippitt spent a day last week at their cottage on Haven avenue.

Robert White of Cartwright avenue has had his cottage renovated both inside and out. His fern beds are modern. He spent a few days last week in Providence. Mrs. H. H. Sterry and son Allen were recent visitors in Norwich. Judge J. H. Reed of Stafford Springs was a recent camper.

C. L. Harwood of Norwich, James Purdue of Providence, Rev. J. H. Newland of Norwich, Mrs. M. T. Braly of Grovesendale, Mrs. L. M. Flocken and son of Willimantic, Mrs. S. E. Talcott of Rockville, Mrs. M. A. Johnson and Mrs. E. F. Miller of Ellington, Rev. W. P. Buck of New London have all called on friends on the grounds during the week.

Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Anthony have returned to their home in Jewett City. Orrin Lincoln and Miss Mary Morey of Eggleston have opened their cottage on Wesley circle.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain of Griswold have spent a day recently at their cottage on Simpson avenue.

Mrs. J. N. Adams and Miss Julia Adams of Colchester have opened their cottage on Simpson avenue.

Mrs. J. N. Adams and Miss Julia Adams of Colchester have opened their cottage on Simpson avenue.

Mrs. Cantwell, Miss Edith Cantwell, Dr. Kenneth Buell of New York, Miss Smith, Miss Nellie Smith and Miss Agnes Rogers of New London have been spending a few days at the Smith cottage on Foster avenue.

Mrs. J. E. Fellows and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Fellows, are at the Currier cottage on Haven avenue for the month of June.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. MacIntire, formerly of Rockville, opened the Root cottage on Foster avenue on Monday. They were joined Tuesday by their youngest daughter, Miss Frances, from the Woman's college, Baltimore, Md., class 1910.

Mrs. Johnson of Willimantic has rented the Ramden cottage on Wesley circle for the summer.

Mrs. George A. Day and Mrs. Julia Hattie of South Manchester, who have been at their cottage on Wesley circle for the past week, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barker and son Roy of New London spent the week-end in their cottage on Prospect avenue. They had as a guest Mrs. William Hotman, also of New London.

Norwich Delegates.
Herman Alofin, representing Norwich City lodge, No. 62, O. B. A., will leave this evening for New York to attend the national convention and fifteenth anniversary of the order by James Simon and A. Ableman, also of the Norwich lodge, follow Saturday evening. The anniversary celebration is held Sunday and the convention on the following three days.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE PLEASED WITH HOSPITAL.

Shown About by Drs. Pollock and Spaulding—Estimates and Needs Discussed.

At 9 o'clock Thursday morning a special Norwich and Western car took the members of the appropriations committee to the Norwich state hospital. With the party were Judge N. J. Aylin, H. H. Gallup, Senator W. J. Allen and Representatives Tibbitts, Brewster and Thurston. Dr. Pollock and his assistant, Dr. Spaulding, were in charge of the party. At the hospital the party were shown all through the wards, power plant, administration building, barn and colony. At noon a very fine lunch was served at the home of the superintendent. After that the members of the committee, the trustees and the representatives from Norwich, Preston and Ledyard went to the administration building and went over the estimates and needs of the hospital and what sum the committee would approve for the legislature to vote to appropriate. The session lasted until 3 o'clock, when the committee took the train from Fort Point for their homes.

The members of the committee expressed themselves as much pleased with the growth and conduct of the hospital. It is hoped and expected that the committee will recommend the appropriation asked for in a bill which was introduced early in the session by Representative Henry W. Tibbitts asking for $448,000 from the state for additional buildings and equipment, which includes grading grounds and for the horse barn.

VINEYARD WORKERS.

Final Meeting of Year Held and Appropriations Made.

At the home of the president, Mrs. P. C. Wright, on Slater avenue, the Vineyard Workers of the Central Baptist church held their final meeting for the season Wednesday evening at which the appropriations for the year was the principal business transacted. Reports from the recent food work showed net receipts of approximately $100.

The following amounts were appropriated: $10 for Mrs. Jane Dugan in Porto Rico; $50 to a Chinese girls' boarding school under Miss Minnie at Kinwah, China; and $10 to the Baptist training school at Chicago.

The study for the year has been upon home missions, conducted by Mrs. J. Holland Larrabee, and a vote of thanks was unanimously passed for the interesting way in which she had conducted the lessons. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Entire Day Heard in Hearing Evidence in Case of Furlong vs. New Haven Road.

The superior court resumed its session here on Thursday morning and the case of Furlong, adm., vs. the New Haven road was continued. The evidence for the plaintiff was completed and a number of witnesses for the defense were called during the afternoon, but the case was not finished and went over until next week. This morning there will be a short calendar session and the annual calling of the docket. There was some delay on Thursday morning, owing to one of the jurors being ill.

Norwich Ministers There.

Of the Norwich ministers who were present at the bicentennial anniversary of the General Association of Congregational Ministers of the state at its session in Hartford, this week were Rev. Dr. Lowlyn Pratt, Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe and Rev. H. T. Arnold. The meeting was one of interest and profit. An admirable paper was presented by Dr. Howe on the Future of Congregationalism as Suggested by Its History.

Shipping Goods to Scotland.

W. H. Covay has received a big order for picker sticks from C. H. Elder of Mansfield, Warwick, Scotland, and the order has been filled.

Were at Montville Meeting.

Councillor Orrin M. Price, Frank Q. Smith and four others made up a delegation from Mansfield council, No. 80, of this city attending the ladies' night of America council, No. 84, O. U. A. M. in Montville Thursday evening.

Boat Club to Have Float.

The Chelsea Boat club has decided to be represented by a float in the parade at the town's 250th anniversary. A unique design has been planned by the committee.

Saw Two Deer.

About midnight Wednesday night, when returning to his home, No. 55 Cedar street, from his work Engineer Arthur Brock saw a buck and does in his yard. They jumped the fence and ran up Cedar street when he approached. The buck had good sized horns.

First German Band.

A German band of six pieces arrived in town from Bridgeport Thursday and were heard around the streets during the day. They expect to make a stay of several days here.

Invited Committee to Norwich.

Representative Henry W. Tibbitts has invited the legislative committee on banks, of which he is a member, to be his guests on July 5, at the 250th anniversary celebration.
